

JACOB R. HENDERSON JR.

Attorney at Law, Henderson Travel Agency, Representative of Africa Diaspora Heritage Trail Initiative

ATA mourns the loss of longtime ATA member and supporter Jacob R. Henderson, Jr., who passed away this week. Mr. Henderson Jr. was a specialist in travel, transportation, tourism development, tourism promotion and marketing, working extensively in Africa and the Caribbean. He also worked closely with American business, from large corporations to small private companies, in pursuing developing country commercial strategies. He is from a distinguished African American business family which played a leading role in connecting the African American community in the U.S. with the African marketplace.
